

You will need:
1 toilet roll holder
(or 1/2 kitchen roll holder, scissors.
greaseproof paper,
paint or paint sticks,
tape (paper is best but glue or sellotape
can be used too),
sticky gems to decorate
or kitchen foil

Coronation Fanfare

Cut greaseproof paper into a circle and cover one end of the toilet roll holder. Secure with tape, glue or an elastic band. Use a pin, needle or tip of the scissors to poke a hole in the side of the toilet roll holder. This will let the sound escape.

Now you have a kazoo, which you can decorate however you like. If you don't have sticky gems, crunch up small pieces of kitchen foil to make shiny diamonds. You can glue strips of foil for a shiny kazoo or just paint it. It's completely up to you, it's your coronation!

Finally, just blow to create your own trumpet fanfare!
